Deloitte grows stronger in financial risk management

Prague, 8 July 2019 – Since June, Deloitte’s Risk Advisory function has been strengthened by Petr Strnad, who has become a director responsible for financial risk management. He is part of the team led by Nik Černomorský.

"Our team has expanded to include a major expert in the finance sector. He has got to know the industry in detail in various roles, including risk management, which allows us to offer clients even more qualified services," says Nik Černomorský, partner and leader of the Risk Advisory function.

At Deloitte, Petr Strnad principally specialises in key, extensive and comprehensive projects in the area of finance and banking. He has almost twenty years of experience in this sector, having held various top management positions – from risk management director to COO to board member. He has worked in a universal as well as a corporate bank, a pension company and a building savings bank in the Czech Republic and Slovakia.

In the course of his career, Peter has worked in the area of finance, investments and operating matters including back-office management, IT or compliance, gradually handling all of the main risk categories (market, AML, credit and operational risks). He studied financial and actuarial mathematics at the Faculty of Mathematics and Physics of Charles University in Prague and European integration at the University of Economics in Prague.
