

ICC YAF:

Smooth cooperation & enforceable measures

Tips on effective arbitration for young practitioners

Join this ICC YAF Conference to discuss on how to ensure smooth cooperation between in-house counsel and external lawyers. The second topic to be discussed are preliminary and interim measures in international arbitration

Date 20 June 2019 | 17:00 – 21:00

Location Prague, Czech Republic

Venue Eversheds Sutherland Dvořák Hager
Pobřežní 394/12, Prague 8

Description In the first panel, young practitioners with diverse backgrounds including in-house counsels will discuss and debate the question of how to ensure smooth cooperation between in-house counsel and external lawyers. They will share their tips and tricks and offer advice to other young practitioners.

The second panel will address the issue of preliminary and interim measures in international arbitration. It will, amongst others, address how to obtain enforceable preliminary or interim measure, how to determine the relevant authority and also how to avoid any hitches.

Who should attend? This conference is aimed at young arbitration practitioners of approximately 40 years or under: counsel, arbitrators, corporate counsel or academics. The ICC YAF Conference is an ideal forum for young practitioners to exchange thoughts on international arbitration and to enrich their network in the region.
